

Chief adviser of East West University Dr Mohammed Farashuddin speaks at a seminar titled 'Dengue Situation and Prevention in Bangladesh' on its campus in the capital's Aftabnagar on Wednesday. — SUN PHOTO

EWU holds seminar on prevention of dengue

METRO DESK

A seminar titled “Dengue Situation and Prevention in Bangladesh” was held at the SM Nousher Ali Lecture Gallery of East West University (EWU) campus in the capital’s Aftabnagar area on Wednesday.

Department of Social Relations of the university organised the seminar, said a press release.

Member of Board of Trustees, EWU, Dr Rafiqul Huda Chaudhury chaired the programme while former governor of Bangladesh Bank and chief adviser of EWU Dr Mohammed Farashuddin attended the event as chief guest.

Among others, Professor Dr Md Mobarak Hossain Khan, Chairperson of Department of Social Relations, EWU, Professor Dr Kabirul Bashar, Department of Zoology, Jahangirnagar University and Sazid Ibna Zaman, Researcher, were present in the programme.