

Oath against corruption

MUSHFIQUL HAQUE MUKIT

YOUTH Engagement and Support- East West University group (YES-EWU) arranged a day-long programme on February 19 to celebrate International Mother Language day. The programme started with an anti corruption oath, where the student of EWU promised to be corrupt-free in any situation throughout their life. They promised to be loyal to their motherland as well.

Former Governor of Bangladesh Bank and President of the University's Board of Trustees Dr. Mohammed

Farashuddin and Vice Chancellor Ahmed Shafi were present at the programme.

To inspire the youth, YES-EWU arranged cultural programme, debate, recitations of Ekusher Kobita and a drama based on Rana Plaza tragedy. YES-EWU members performed at these functions. The students of East West University put their hand print in a large map of Bangladesh as a sign of taking oath against corruption. Other features of this programme included competitions and cultural programmes. With the prize giving ceremony, the day long program ended.
